

26th November 2009 - A Christmas Carol at Birmingham Repertory Theatre

Includes presentation by Anya Sampson, WIBA member and Development Manager, Birmingham Repertory Theatre on the plans for the new Rep/Library

Speaker details

Anya is passionate about theatre and the positive impact it has on people's lives. She's proud to be the Development Manager for The Birmingham Repertory Theatre, one of the country's most prominent producing theatre companies. The REP creates entirely new stage shows and successfully tours them nationally and internationally every year. It also takes theatre to people in schools, colleges and other places throughout the Midlands via its extensive learning and participation projects. The REP is a registered charity (number 223660). Anya's role is to develop fundraising and sponsorship opportunities that benefit both the donor and The REP.

'As a member of WIBA I've enjoyed making contacts with other business women in the city and this has resulted in extra corporate hospitality bookings for The REP. The REP is also delighted that WIBA have chosen to support the theatre by sponsoring a performance of 'A Christmas Carol'.
