

What's your Financial awareness state - fearful, frozen or fantasy land?

Thursday 24 June 2010, 6.00 pm for 6.30 pm
at Barclays Bank, 15 Colmore Row, Birmingham B3 2WN

We're all aware of financial pressures affecting home and work.
What can we do? What is the true cost of not updating our financial position? Choices depend on careful planning.

Our experts will improve our financial understanding and suggest actions to suit our business or lifestyles.

Check your understanding with panel members who are experts in their own financial specialist area.

Question our experts and stimulate discussion for the whole group following their brief outline of how their services can help you personally and professionally

Our panel comprises:-

- Barclays, one of the few banks not assisted by the government who offer a broad portfolio of services for individuals and businesses of every size
- Capelin Financial Management, Chartered Financial Planners - wiba member Heather Singleton will suggest some steps to take to improve our personal financial situations to help future choices
- Collinsons' Chartered Accountants and business advisers will suggest how using an accountant can help small and medium sized businesses

Their messages will not only consider what actions to take in times of economic hardship but also help us make informed choices and decisions at different stages in life or business development.

There will be opportunities to ask advisors individual questions during networking over buffet and drinks.
