

LOVE, LIFE AND A CAREER – CAN WE HAVE IT ALL? on Wednesday 17th March 2010 - 6.30 pm for 7.00 pm at City Inn, Brindleyplace, Birmingham

Speaker: ZAHRA PABANI – back by popular demand!
Partner and Head of the Family Team at Shakespeares Putsman Solicitors

A family lawyer and team manager Zahra is published in 2 prestigious family law journals and has written for women's magazines, the Birmingham Post, the Mail on Sunday, appeared as a 'Hot shot' in the Daily Telegraph and appeared on the BBC documentary programme Inside Out.

Her talk will focus on – the successful business woman and how to juggle so many balls to keep so many people happy – your boss, your husband, your boyfriend, your children, your parents! - sound familiar?!

Having a successful business career can impact on home and family life and can place pressure on relationships..... these are just some of the areas that Zahra will attempt to cover during her talk, but there will also be plenty time after to talk with her direct during networking.

- The changing roles of women in business and industry and how this impacts on family life
- Getting married – do you need a pre/post nup?
- Living together – do you need a cohabitation agreement?
- Pressure – how do you survive in a relationship under pressure – what tools can you use to save a relationship/marriage?
- If enough is enough and you want out – what can you possibly do to make sure that you, your children and your finances are ok?
- Wealth protection – how can you protect yourself and your family in a recession?

Zahra would describe herself as a working class girl 'done good'! From her humble beginnings as a refugee from Uganda she has worked hard to achieve her current status within the legal profession which is really a man's world!

the opportunity to talk with Zahra and other members and guests over wine and buffet meal - for easy networking for you to share experiences of career and home life balance.
