

The world of work – what's changed?

Wednesday 22nd August 2018

6pm for 6.30pm – 8.30pm

Gateley PLC , One Eleven Edmund Street, Birmingham B3 2HJ

The world of work has changed – whether the 'gig economy' or 'portfolio working', gender pay gap, living wage, harassment, Brexit impact or simply keeping up with the myriad of employment laws, it can seem like a minefield.

Join employment law experts from leading international law firm Gateleys to find out how such changes may affect you. Unless we have a dynamic HR department, it is easy to lose touch with the implications legal changes have for us as individuals, companies or employers including rights and protection related to age, parental leave, or illness.

Whether employee, employer or self-employed, employment laws can appear complex so a useful informative update can remind us of the many issues we need to consider at work.

WiBA is delighted to welcome lawyers from Gateleys who are hosting the event at their city centre offices who will speak about the issues that may affect us at different times in our working lives. They understand the law and potential HR pitfalls recognising how to get from A to B safely and in a commercially sensible way to benefit your business and people.

This event, open to WiBA members and guests is hosted by Gateleys, in the heart of the business district in Edmund St.

As usual, our evening will begin with networking whilst enjoying drinks and light refreshments.

Don't miss this opportunity to catch up with employment issues that affect you within the friendly supportive networking arena of women in business association.

This event is £12 for members and £16 for guests.
