Have you ever wondered what it takes to prepare a city to host an event involving competitors from 71 countries, broadcast to a worldwide television audience of millions? Birmingham is set to host the 2022 Commonwealth Games and has just 4 years to prepare for the largest sporting event ever hosted in the City.

WiBA is delighted to welcome Ashley Innis, Birmingham City Council's Project Manager for the Athletes Village for the 2022 Birmingham Commonwealth Games, who will speak about the challenges ahead to deliver the games, including building a brand new athletes village, and the opportunities to create a lasting legacy for Birmingham

Ashley was part of a group of officials from Birmingham who travelled to the Gold Coast in April this year to experience the 2018 Commonwealth Games first hand and will talk to us about what Birmingham has learned from its Australian counterparts to ensure the city puts on the best Games possible in 2022.

This event, which is open to WiBA members and guests, will be hosted by SACO Apartments, in Brindleyplace. Based in one of SACO's stylish serviced apartments with breath-taking views of the city, the evening will begin with the opportunity to network with new and existing contacts whilst enjoying drinks and a delicious selection of canapes.

We are delighted to offer this event at no cost to members, non-members are very welcome at a cost of £18.

*There are a maximum of 25 spaces for this event*

This event is FREE for members and £18 for guests.
